

Tony River Sings in Bucharest on March 8

Friday, 29 February 2008

The famous singer Tony River is coming to Romania for the first time in March. He will perform in Bucharest as well the major cities.

An evening in the company of Tony River promises to be an unforgettable experience. His warm, romantic voice sometimes reminds you of Julio Iglesias's colorful timbre, although his performance is much closer to the great bolero singers. River is known as a great performer who masters his audience wherever he sings. He is also a great actor, his style having been appreciated in Spanish cabarets for more than 20 years. The Spaniards' favorite genre has always been the variety show, in which a performer must demonstrate the combined skills of a good actor, singer and dancer. Tony River has managed to display these talents like no other, becoming an Ambassador for this kind of show.
